FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What does Davians catering provide?

All catered wedding packages include linens, china, water goblets & water service, a coffee station, service staff, & a floor manager.

Does Davians provide or set up the tables & chairs?

Usually your venue will supply and set up the tables & chairs.

What does Davians set up?

Our catering team will set up the linens on guest tables, head table, & any food service tables + full place settings.

All the catered wedding packages include 120" round white tablecloths for guest tables, white linens for your head table, black or white linen napkins, white china & silverware, glass water goblets, and white china coffee mugs. If you choose a buffet or station style service Davians also includes linens for food service tables.

Davians offers rentals for specialty tablecloths, linen napkins, or table runners all in your choice of color.

Can Davians provide meals for guests with dietary restrictions?

Yes! Please let your guests know "dietary meals are available upon request" so they communicate in advance what their needs are. Davians can provide vegetarian, vegan, gluten free, or allergy meals. We just ask that you let us know where they will be sitting (or include their meals on your place card meal indicators for plated meals.)

How do I confirm final details as my wedding date approaches?

After you have booked & you have picked the initial information with Davians, you will have an Event Manager as your point of contact. They are available for questions you have leading up to your wedding & to coordinate our services with your venue.

As your wedding date approaches, your Event Manager will reach out to confirm details like timeline, vendor meals, guest count, dietary needs, table assignments, etc.

Is Davians fully insured?

Yes, Davians holds up to do licensing & insurance.

What happens if there is leftover food?

In accordance with the State of Wisconsin Health Department, any leftover food from an event is not allowed to be taken by guests, and remains the property of Davians. We do not allow food to be taken off the premises and do not provide to go containers.
